

10867NAT DIPLOMA of Pilates Movement Therapy

THE CLEAR CHOICE

The APMA is proud to offer its nationally accredited qualification 10867NAT Diploma of Pilates Movement Therapy. The design of this new qualification is based on the APMA's historical and ground breaking Level Two Pilates Instructor Course (1994 to today). The result is a product of years of debate, study and practice from the many respected voices in the profession, making it the most comprehensive and balanced course in the marketplace.

This nationally accredited qualification prepares students to work with low-to-medium risk clients in a one-on-one studio (equipment-based) or group setting. The course is designed to teach the theoretical and historical basis of the Pilates Method and prepare students to work safely and professionally with confidence.

The aim is for students to become proficient at teaching a variety of traditional and contemporary interpretations of the Pilates Method repertoire, with an understanding of the methodology necessary to modify it for use by clientele with a wide variety of pathologies, conditions and needs.

Whether you intend to teach floor classes or work in an equipment-based studio, the APMA's Diploma of Pilates Movement Therapy is the clear choice.

An Australian course uniquely designed by a collective of highly respected educators within the industry.

The most comprehensive course of its kind solidly based in the health sector with graduates recognised by health funds.

All profits are returned directly to the membership of the APMA to further advance the needs of the Pilates industry in Australia.

HIGHEST QUALITY EDUCATION

The APMA has a commitment to delivering and maintaining a high calibre of training and assessment with quality experiences and outcome for each participant. The APMA has always pursued policies and procedures to ensure a nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment so Pilates' clientele and other industry professionals can have complete confidence in APMA-accredited instructors.

The APMA recognizes the importance and benefits of combining industry experience with tertiary education when striving to deliver programmes of the highest quality and relevance to the client. In line with the APMA's policy, all Trainers and Assessors contracted by the APMA Education & Training have demonstrated significant industry experience in addition to obtaining tertiary qualifications, allowing them to provide a professional well-rounded learning environment for participants.

Trainers, Assessors and their Staff are equipped with the skills to ensure their teaching methods are suitable for all participants, utilizing simple language where appropriate to effectively communicate information.

SUPPORT SERVICES

LANGUAGE, LITERACY AND NUMERACY (LLN) ASSISTANCE

- APMA recognises that not all candidates will have the same level of ability in relation to reading, writing and performing calculations. If required, throughout your training, staff will endeavour to provide assistance to those having difficulty with language, literacy or numeracy to accommodate their needs. In the event that a candidate's needs exceed the ability of APMA staff to assist, the candidate will be referred to an external support agency so they have the opportunity to obtain the skills required to complete the training program.

FLEXIBLE DELIVERY AND ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES

- APMA recognises that some people are better suited to learning via teaching methods not usually obtained in the traditional classroom setting. With some minor adjustments to teaching and assessment methods, a candidate who is experiencing difficulty learning and achieving the desired results in the traditional setting may show considerable improvements. Australian Pilates Method Association staff will pursue any reasonable means within their ability to assist candidates in achieving the required competency standards. In the event that a candidate's needs exceed the capacity of the support services Australian Pilates Method Association can offer, they will be referred to an appropriate external agency.

CANDIDATE SUPPORT, WELFARE AND GUIDANCE

- APMA will assist all candidates in their efforts to complete training programs by all methods available and reasonable. In the event that a candidate is experiencing personal difficulties, training staff will encourage the candidate to contact Australian Pilates Method Association who will provide discreet, personalised and confidential assistance as according to the nature of the difficulties. In the event that a candidate's needs exceed the capacity of the support services Australian Pilates Method Association can offer, they will be referred to an appropriate external services, such as, community services and local government agencies.
